To: The Shareholders of Golden Agri-Resources Ltd

Dear Sir / Madam,

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Directors are convening the SM to be held on Tuesday, 25 April 2017 to seek the approval of Shareholders in relation to the proposed amendments to the Constitution ("Proposed Amendments").
- 1.2 The purpose of this Circular is to provide Shareholders with information relating to, and to seek Shareholders' approval for, the Proposed Amendments to be tabled at the SM, the notice of which is set out on page 60 of this Circular.
- 1.3 This Circular has been prepared solely for the purpose set out herein and may not be relied upon by any persons (other than Shareholders) or for any other purpose.

2. THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

2.1 Background and Rationale

The Companies (Amendment) Act 2014 of Singapore, which was passed in the Parliament of Singapore on 8 October 2014 and took effect in phases on 1 July 2015 and 3 January 2016 respectively, introduced wide-ranging changes to the Singapore Companies Act previously in force. The changes aim to reduce regulatory burden for companies, provide for greater business flexibility, and improve the corporate governance landscape in Singapore.

The Company is proposing to align its Constitution with the Singapore Amendment Act, to the extent practicable and is permitted by (or is not otherwise contrary to) the laws of Mauritius, to benefit from these changes. Key changes introduced by the Singapore Amendment Act include, amongst others, a multiple-proxies regime, which serves to enfranchise indirect investors, and provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents, which are ultimately intended to enable companies to reduce costs and increase efficiency. At the same time, the Company also seeks to ensure that its Constitution complies with the prevailing requirements of the Listing Manual, and also streamline and rationalise certain other provisions in the Constitution for inter alia compliance with the Mauritius Companies Act.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The Company confirms that the Proposed Amendments are consistent and in accordance with the Listing Manual, and in particular, complies with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual.

2.2 Summary of Principal Proposed Amendments

The following is a summary of the principal Proposed Amendments to the Constitution, and should be read in conjunction with Appendix 1 to this Circular, which sets out a comparison of the Constitution (incorporating the Proposed Amendments) against the Constitution as at the Latest Practicable Date, with all additions underlined and any deletions marked with a strikethrough.

2.3.1 Alignment with the Singapore Companies Act

The following Articles include provisions which are in line with the Singapore Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Singapore Amendment Act, and which are compliant with (or is not otherwise contrary to) the Mauritius Companies Act:

- (a) Article 1.3 (Article 1.3 of the existing Constitution). Article 1.3, which is the interpretation section of the Constitution, includes the following additional/ revised provisions:
- (1) a new provision stating that the expressions “account holder”, “book-entry securities”, “Depositor”, “Depository”, “Depository Agent” and “Depository Register” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the SFA is added. This is for alignment with the migration of the provisions in the Singapore Companies Act which relate to the Central Depository System to the SFA pursuant to the Singapore Amendment Act. Consequential amendments have been made to Article 42(B), which deals with the transmission in title of shares upon the death of a Shareholder who is a Depositor;
 - (2) a new definition of “current address” is added. This is as extracted from the Singapore Companies Act and refers to (in relation to any notice or document to be sent to a person of the Company) a number or address used for electronic communication which (i) has been notified by the person in writing to the Company as one at which that notice or document may be sent to him, and (ii) the Company has no reason to believe that that notice or document sent to the person at that address will not reach him. This follows the introduction of new provisions facilitating electronic communication pursuant to the Singapore Amendment Act;
 - (3) a new definition of “electronic communication” is added, to refer to communication transmitted (whether from one person to another, from one device to another, from a person to a device or from a device to a person) by (i) means of a telecommunication system, or (ii) other means but while in an electronic form, such that it can (where particular conditions are met) be received in legible form or be made legible following receipt in non-legible form. This follows the introduction of new provisions facilitating electronic

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- communication and the multiple-proxies regime pursuant to the Singapore Amendment Act;
- (4) the definition of “Law” has been expanded to refer to other relevant laws affecting the Company. Specifically, this definition is intended to refer to, amongst others, the SFA which contains provisions relating to the Depository;
 - (5) the definition of “Statutes” is intended to refer only to the Mauritius Companies Act and statutes of Mauritius concerning companies and affecting the Company, and consequently amended to reflect this;
 - (6) new definitions of “registered address” or “address” are added, to clarify that these expressions mean, in relation to any Shareholder, his physical address for the service or delivery of notices or documents personally or by post, except where otherwise expressly specified in the Constitution;
 - (7) a new expression “relevant intermediary” is added. This is as extracted from the Singapore Companies Act, and added with the introduction of new provisions facilitating the multiple-proxies regime pursuant to the Singapore Amendment Act; and
 - (8) the definition of “in writing” is revised, to clarify that such term includes any representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information which may be displayed in a visible form, whether in physical or electronic form. This would facilitate, for example, a proxy instrument being filled in and submitted in either physical or electronic form.
- (b) Article 8 (Article 8 of the existing Constitution). Article 8, which relates to the Company’s power to alter its share capital, has a new provision which empowers the Company, in the manner and to the extent permitted by Law (as defined in the Constitution) and the Listing Rules (for so long as the Shares of the Company are listed on the SGX-ST), to convert its share capital or any class of shares from one currency to another currency. This is for alignment with new section 73 of the Singapore Companies Act, with an additional safeguard of being subject to applicable laws and the Listing Rules.
- (c) Article 13 (Article 13 of the existing Constitution). New section 67 of the Singapore Companies Act allows a company to use its share capital to pay any expenses incurred directly in the issue of new shares. The new provision reflects the commercial reality that it is normal for a company to use the amount raised from its share capital for its business needs. Accordingly, it is proposed that Article 13 be amended to clarify that where permitted by Law (as defined in the Constitution), expenses (including commissions or brokerage) incurred in the issue of new shares and paid out of the Company’s share capital shall not be taken as reducing the amount of share capital of the Company.
- (d) Article 52 (Article 52 of the existing Constitution). Article 52, which relates to the routine business that is transacted at an AM, has been revised to, inter alia:
- (i) substitute the references to “accounts” with “financial statements” for alignment and consistency with the updated terminology in the Singapore Companies Act; and

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (ii) expand the routine business items to include, in addition to the re-appointment of the retiring Auditor, the appointment of a new Auditor.
- (e) Articles 64, 69A, 70 and 72 (Articles 64, 70 and 72 of the existing Constitution). Articles 64, 69A, 70 and 72, which relate to the voting rights of Shareholders and the appointment and deposit of proxies, have new provisions for alignment with the multiple-proxies regime introduced by the Singapore Amendment Act. The multiple-proxies regime allows “relevant intermediaries”, such as banks, capital markets services licence holders which provide custodial services for securities and the CPF Board, to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at shareholders’ meetings. This is to allow indirect investors to be appointed as proxies to participate in shareholders’ meetings. The regime is also extended to allow CPF investors who purchase shares through the CPFIS to attend shareholders’ meetings. In particular:
 - (i) Article 69A provides that save as otherwise provided in the Mauritius Companies Act and/or the Listing Rules, a Shareholder who is a “relevant intermediary” may appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at the same Members Meeting, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such Shareholder, and where such Shareholder’s form of proxy appoints more than two proxies, the number and class of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed must be specified in the form of proxy. This is for alignment with new section 181(1C) of the Singapore Companies Act;
 - (ii) Article 70(A)(a) provides that the Company shall be entitled and bound to reject any instrument of proxy lodged by a Depositor if he is not shown to have any Shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 (previously 48) hours before the time of the relevant Members Meeting. Consequential changes have also been made in Articles 64 and 70(A)(b) to make it clear that the number of votes which a Depositor or his proxy can cast on a poll is the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time of the relevant Members Meeting. This is for alignment with new section 81SJ(4) of the SFA;
 - (iii) Article 64 provides that in the case of a Shareholder who is a “relevant intermediary” and who is represented at a Members Meeting by two or more proxies, each proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands. This is for alignment with new section 181(1D) of the Singapore Companies Act; and
 - (iv) the cut-off time for the deposit of proxies has been extended from 48 to 72 hours before the time appointed for holding the Members Meeting. This is for alignment with section 178(1)(c) of the Singapore Companies Act, as amended by the Singapore Amendment Act.
- (f) Article 109 (Article 109 of the existing Constitution). Article 109, which relates to the general powers of the Directors to manage the Company’s business, clarifies that the business and affairs of the Company is to be managed by, or under the direction of or, additionally, under the supervision of, the Directors. This is for alignment with section 157A of the Singapore Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Singapore Amendment Act.
- (g) Article 117A. Article 117A, which relates to the keeping of Company records, has been added to the Constitution and provides that such records may be kept either in hard copy or electronic form. This is for alignment with the new sections 395 and 396 of the Singapore Companies Act.

- (h) Articles 131, 133, 134 and 147 (Articles 131, 133, 134 and 147 of the existing Constitution). Articles 131, 133, 134 and 147 have been updated to substitute the references to the Company's "profit and loss account" with references to "financial statements", as appropriate, for alignment and consistency with the updated terminology in the Singapore Companies Act.
- (i) Article 137 (Article 137 of the existing Constitution). Article 137, which relates to the service of notices to Shareholders, has new provisions for alignment with the provisions intended to facilitate electronic transmission of notices and documents as introduced by new section 387C of the Singapore Companies Act.

Under new section 387C of the Singapore Companies Act, notices and documents may be given, sent or served using electronic communications with the express, implied or deemed consent of the member in accordance with the constitution of the company, as elaborated further below:

- (i) There is express consent if the said member expressly agrees with the company that notices and documents may be given, sent or served on him using electronic communications.
- (ii) There is implied consent if the constitution (a) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the mode of electronic communications, and (b) specifies that the said member agrees to receive such notices or documents by way of electronic communications and does not have a right to elect to receive physical copies of such notices and documents.
- (iii) There is deemed consent if the constitution (a) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the mode of electronic communications, and (b) specifies that the said member will be given an opportunity to elect, within a specified period of time, whether to receive electronic or physical copies of such notices and documents, and the member fails to make an election within the specified period of time.

New section 387C of the Singapore Companies Act was introduced to give effect to recommendations by the Steering Committee for Review of the Singapore Companies Act to ease the rules for the use of electronic transmission and to make them less prescriptive, and these recommendations were accepted by the Ministry of Finance of Singapore ("MOF"). In accepting these recommendations, MOF noted the concerns of some shareholders who would prefer to have an option to receive physical copies of the notices and documents, notwithstanding that the company adopts the implied consent regime, and indicated that such shareholders could highlight their concerns when a company proposes amendments to its constitution to move to an implied consent regime.

Under the new provisions of the Companies Regulations (Cap. 50, Rg 1, 1990 Rev Ed) of Singapore, notices or documents relating to take-over offers and rights issues are excluded from application of section 387C of the Singapore Companies Act and therefore cannot be transmitted by electronic means pursuant to section 387C of the Singapore Companies Act.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Shareholders who are supportive of the new deemed consent and implied consent regimes for electronic communications may vote in favour of the Proposed Amendments, which also includes the proposed amendments to Article 137, to facilitate these regimes, while Shareholders who are not supportive of the new regimes may vote against it.

Article 137 provides that:

- (i) notices and documents may be sent using electronic communications to a member either to his current address (which may be an email address) or by making it available on a website;
- (ii) a member is deemed to have agreed to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document (this is the implied consent regime permitted under the new section 387C); and
- (iii) notwithstanding sub-paragraph (ii) above, the Directors may decide to give the said member an opportunity to elect to opt out of receiving such notice or document by way of electronic communications, and such member is deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications if he was given such an opportunity but failed to opt out within the specified time (this is the deemed consent regime permitted under the new section 387C).

Article 137 further provides for when service is effected in the case of notices or documents sent by electronic communications. In particular, where a notice or document is made available on a website, it is deemed served on the date on which the notice or document is first made available on the website, unless otherwise provided under the Mauritius Companies Act and/or other applicable regulations or procedures, including the Listing Rules. Further, in the case of service on a website, the Company must give (a) separate notice of the publication of the notice or document on that website and (b) the manner in which the notice or document may be accessed by (1) sending such separate notice to the member, officer or auditor (as the case may be) personally or by post, and/or (2) sending such separate notice to the current addresses (which may be email addresses) of that member, officer or auditor (as the case may be), and/or (3) by way of advertisement in the daily press, and/or (4) by way of announcement on the SGX-ST.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the outcome of a public consultation by the SGX-ST on, inter alia, whether listed issuers should be allowed to send notices and documents to its shareholders electronically under the new regimes permitted under the Singapore Companies Act as described above is not yet known. Further, in its consultation, the SGX-ST had also asked for comments on additional safeguards in relation to the new regimes. Shareholders should note that there is no certainty that the Listing Rules will be amended to allow electronic transmission of notices and documents under the new regimes. Going forward, for so long as the Company is listed on the SGX-ST, the Company will not make use of the new regimes to transmit notices or documents electronically to Members unless the Listing Rules subsequently allow it, and the Company will comply with the Listing Rules on the subject.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

2.3.2 Listing Manual

Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its articles or other constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the Listing Rules prevailing at the time of amendment.

The following Articles have been updated to ensure consistency with the Listing Rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual.

- (a) Article 3(d) (Article 3 of the existing Constitution). Article 3(d) is a new provision which provides that the rights attaching to shares of a class other than ordinary shares must be expressed in the Constitution. This is in line with paragraph (1)(b) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (b) Article 31 (Article 31 of the existing Constitution). Article 31, which relates to the Company's lien on shares, is amended to clarify that the lien extends to dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares, and further that the lien is restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such monies are due and unpaid, in addition to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by Law (as defined in the Constitution) to pay in respect of those shares. These clarifications are in line with paragraph (3)(a) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (c) Article 48 (Article 48 of the existing Constitution). Article 48 has been amended to make it clear that for so long as the Shares are listed on the SGX-ST, all Members Meetings shall be held in Singapore unless prohibited by Law (as defined in the Constitution). This clarification is in line with Rule 730A(1) of the Listing Manual.
- (d) Article 73 (Article 73 of the existing Constitution). Article 73 has been amended to clarify that if a Shareholder submits a proxy form and subsequently attends the meeting in person and votes, the appointment of the proxy should be revoked. - (f) Article 88 (Article 88 of the existing Constitution). Article 88, which relates to Managing Directors, clarifies that a person holding an equivalent position to the Managing Director shall also be subject to the control of the Directors. This is in line with paragraph (9)(j) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (g) Articles 89 and 92 (Articles 89 and 92 of the existing Constitution). Article 89, which relates to the vacation of office of a Director in certain events, now additionally provides that a Director shall cease to hold office if he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds. Consequential changes have been made to Article 92, which relates to the filling of the office vacated by a retiring Director in certain default events, to provide that a retiring Director is deemed to be re-elected in certain default circumstances except, additionally, where he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for

- (h) Article 94 (Article 94 of the existing Constitution). Article 94, which relates to the appointment process of Directors, has been revised editorially to reflect the wordings in paragraph (9)(h) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (i) Article 101 (Article 101 of the existing Constitution). Article 101, which relates to when a Director is prohibited from voting in respect of contracts or arrangements in which he has an interest, provides that he cannot vote in respect of such contracts or arrangements in which he has any “personal material” interest, directly or indirectly. This is in line with paragraph (9)(e) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (j) Article 102 (Article 102 of the existing Constitution). Article 102, which relates to the proceedings of Directors in case of vacancies in their body, has additional provisions to make it clear that where the number of Directors is reduced to below the minimum number, the continuing Director(s) may act only for the purpose of filling up such vacancies or of summoning Members Meetings, except in an emergency. This additional clarification is in line with paragraph (9)(k) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.

2.3.3 General

The following Articles have been updated, streamlined and rationalised generally:

- (a) Articles 45 and 46 (Articles 45 and 46 of the existing Constitution). Article 46, which relates to the disclosure of interests by person(s) with a substantial shareholding in the Company, has been simplified to require such person(s) to comply with Part VII (Disclosure of Interests) of the SFA which provides for the disclosure of such interests. Article 45 has also been amended as Part VII (Disclosure of Interests) of the SFA also applies to Directors.
- (b) Articles 48 and 133 (Articles 48 and 133 of the existing Constitution). Article 48, which relates to the time-frame for holding AMs, has been revised to remove the requirement to hold an AM within 15 months from the last preceding AM. The reference to the 15-month deadline to convene an AM (or an annual general meeting in the context of Singapore-incorporated companies) was previously intended for alignment with the requirements of the Singapore Companies Act then, and this has now been superseded. The 15-month deadline will be removed pursuant to the Companies (Amendment) Act 2017 of Singapore, which has been passed by the Parliament in Singapore on 10 March 2017. Article 48 is proposed to be simplified to state that an AM shall be held within such period that would not infringe the Mauritius Companies Act and/or the rules or regulations of the SGX-ST, if any. In compliance with Rule 707(1) and paragraph (10) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual, Article 48 has also been revised to provide that for so long as the Shares are listed on the SGX-ST, the interval between the close of the Company’s financial year and the date of the Company’s AM shall not exceed 4 months or such other period as may be prescribed or permitted by SGX-ST. Accordingly, for so long as the Shares are listed on the Official List of the SGX-ST, the timeline prescribed by the SGX-ST prevails. Consequential amendments have been made to Article 133.

Following the removal of the reference to the 15-month timeline for holding AMs (or annual general meetings in the context of Singapore-incorporated companies), Article 133 has been simplified to state that the financial statements must be prepared within such period that would not infringe the Act and/or the rules or regulations of the SGX-ST.

- (c) Articles 71 and 72 (Articles 71 and 72 of the existing Constitution). Article 71, which relates to the appointment of proxies, has new provisions to facilitate the appointment of a proxy through online electronic means. In particular, it provides that a Shareholder can elect to signify his approval for the appointment of a proxy via electronic communication, through such method and in such manner as may be approved by the Directors, in lieu of the present requirement of signing, or where applicable, the affixation of the corporate Shareholder's common seal, to the extent permitted by Law (as defined in the Constitution).

For the purpose of accommodating the deposit by Shareholders, and receipt by the Company, of electronic proxy instructions by Shareholders who elect to use the electronic appointment process, Article 72, which relates to the deposit of proxies, has new provisions which authorise the Directors to prescribe and determine the manner of receipt by the Company of the instrument appointing a proxy through digital means.

- (d) Article 123 (Article 123 of the existing Constitution). Article 123 has been amended to comply with section 63 of the Mauritius Companies Act, which states that the Board shall not authorise a dividend unless it is paid out of retained earnings, after having made good any accumulated losses at the beginning of the accounting period.
- (e) Article 131A. Article 131A is a new provision added to the Constitution to give Directors the power to capitalise reserves for share-based incentive plans, as well as empower the Directors to do the same for the benefit of non-executive Directors as part of their Directors' remuneration. This will enable the Company, if it so desires, to remunerate its non-executive Directors by way of Directors' fees in the form of shares, or in a combination of cash and shares, using such method.
- (f) Article 145 (Article 145 of existing Constitution). Article 145, which relates to secrecy, has been amended to clarify that no Member shall be entitled to require discovery of or any information respecting any detail of the Company's trade or any matter which may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery of trade or secret process which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which in the opinion of the Directors it will be inexpedient in the interest of the Members of the Company to communicate to the public save as may be authorised by Law or required under the Listing Rules for so long as the shares of the Company are listed on the SGX-ST (to the extent permitted by Law (as defined in the Constitution)).
- (g) Article 147 (Article 147 of the existing Constitution). Article 147 has been updated for consistency with the requirements of the Code of Corporate Governance 2012 of Singapore.

The completion and return of a Proxy Form by a Shareholder does not preclude him/her from attending and voting in person at the SM if he/she so wishes. A Depositor shall not be regarded as a member of the Company entitled to attend the SM and to speak and vote thereat unless his/her name appears on the Depository Register 48 hours before the SM.

9. (A) The Company may reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve fund, share premium account or other undistributable reserve, on such terms and in such manner as the Company may from time to time think fit, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

Any share that is so purchased or acquired by the Company shall unless held as treasury shares in accordance with the Act be deemed to be cancelled immediately on purchase or acquisition. On the cancellation of a share as aforesaid, the rights and privileges attached to that share shall expire, and the number of issued shares of the Company shall be diminished by the number of the shares so cancelled, and where any such cancelled shares was purchased or acquired out of the capital of the Company, the amount of the share capital of the Company shall be reduced accordingly. Except as required by Law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or compelled in any way to recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these presents or by Law otherwise provided) any other right in respect of any share, except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the person (other than the Depository) entered in the Register of Members as the registered holder thereof or (as the case may be) person whose name is entered in the Depository Register in respect of that share.
11. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any shares or class of shares for the time being issued, any share in the Company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights, or subject to such restrictions, whether as regards dividend, return of capital, voting or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution determine (or, in the absence of any such determination, as the Directors may determine) and subject to the provisions of any applicable Law, the Company may issue Preference Shares which are, or at the option of the Company are, liable to be redeemed. The Directors may from time to time establish separate classes of shares, which they resolve to create. Where the Directors decide to issue shares of different classes, there shall be established a separate portfolio for each class in which the shares are from time to time designated.

APPENDIX 1 – COMPARISON OF THE CONSTITUTION (INCORPORATING THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS) AND THE EXISTING CONSTITUTION

12. Subject to the provisions of these presents and of any applicable Law relating to authority, pre-emption rights and otherwise and of any resolution of the Company in Members Meeting passed pursuant thereto, all unissued shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors and they may allot (with or without conferring a right of renunciation), grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, at such times and on such terms as they think proper.
13. Such commissions may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful. Where permitted by Law, expenses (including commissions or brokerage) incurred in the issue of new shares and paid out of the Company's share capital shall not be taken as reducing the amount of share capital of the Company.
14. Subject to the terms and conditions of any application for shares, the Directors shall allot shares applied for within 10 market days of the closing date (or such other period as the Directors may from time to time determine, having regard to any limitation thereof as may be prescribed by any Designated Stock Exchange) of any such application. "Market day" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Article 17. The Directors may, at any time after the allotment of any share but before any person has been entered in the Register of Members as the holder or (as the case may be) before that share is entered against the name of a Depositor in the Depository Register, recognise a renunciation thereof by the allottee in favour of some other person and may accord to any allottee of a share a right to effect such renunciation upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Directors may think fit to impose.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

15. Every share certificate shall be issued under the Seal and shall specify the number and class of shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. No certificate shall be issued representing shares of more than one class.
16. (A) The Company shall not be bound to register more than three persons as the registered holder of a share except in the case of executors, trustees or administrators of the estate of a deceased Member.

(B) In the case of a share registered jointly in the names of several persons the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate therefor and delivery of a certificate to any one of the registered joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.
17. For the purposes of this Article 17, "market day" shall mean a day on which any Designated Stock Exchange is open for trading in securities.

18. (A) Any two or more certificates representing shares of any one class held by any person whose name is entered in the Register of Members may at his request be cancelled and a single new certificate for such shares issued in lieu without charge.
 - (B) If any person whose name is entered in the Register of Members shall surrender for cancellation a share certificate representing shares held by him and request the Company to issue in lieu two or more share certificates representing such shares in such proportions as he may specify, the Directors may, if they think fit, comply with such request. Such person shall (unless such fee is waived by the Directors) pay a maximum fee of S$2 or Rupee 5, whichever is less, for each share certificate issued in lieu of a share certificate surrendered for cancellation (or such other fee as the Directors may from time to time determine having regard to any limitation thereof as may be prescribed by any Designated Stock Exchange).
 - (C) In the case of shares registered jointly in the names of several persons any such request may be made by any one of the registered joint holders.
19. If any share certificate shall be defaced, worn out, destroyed, lost or stolen, it may be renewed on such evidence being produced and a letter of indemnity (if required) being given by the shareholder, transferee, person entitled, purchaser, member firm or member company of any Designated Stock Exchange or on behalf of its or their client or clients as the Directors of the Company shall require, and (in case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate and in any case on payment of such sum not exceeding S$2 or Rupee 5, whichever is less, as the Directors may from time to time require. In the case of destruction, loss or theft, a shareholder or person entitled to whom such renewed certificate is given shall also bear the loss and pay to the Company all expenses incidental to the investigations by the Company of the evidence of such destruction or loss.

CALLS ON SHARES

20. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or, when permitted, by way of premium) but subject always to the terms of issue of such shares. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed and may be made payable by instalments.
21. Each Member shall (subject to receiving at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine.
22. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate (not exceeding ten per cent. per annum) as the Directors determine but the Directors shall be at liberty in any case or cases to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

23. Any sum (whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium) which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable upon allotment or at any fixed date shall for all the purposes of these presents be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable. In case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these presents as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
24. The Directors may on the issue of shares differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
25. The Directors may if they think fit receive from any Shareholder willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) uncalled and unpaid upon the shares held by him and such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish pro tanto the liability upon the shares in respect of which it is made and upon the money so received (until and to the extent that the same would but for such advance become payable) the Company may pay interest at such rate (not exceeding eight per cent. per annum) as the Shareholder paying such sum and the Directors may agree. Capital paid on shares in advance of calls shall not while carrying interest confer a right to participate in profits.

FORFEITURE AND LIEN

26. If a Shareholder fails to pay in full any call or installment of a call on the due date for payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued thereon and any expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
27. The notice shall name a further day (not being less than 14 days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which and the place where the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment in accordance therewith the shares on which the call has been made will be liable to be forfeited.
28. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls and interest and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before forfeiture. The Directors may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder.
29. A share so forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was before such forfeiture or surrender the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposition the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit. The Directors may, if necessary, authorise some person to transfer or effect the transfer of a forfeited or surrendered share to any such other person as aforesaid.

APPENDIX 1 – COMPARISON OF THE CONSTITUTION (INCORPORATING THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS) AND THE EXISTING CONSTITUTION

30. A Shareholder whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a Shareholder in respect of the shares but shall notwithstanding the forfeiture or surrender remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture or surrender were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares with interest thereon at eight per cent. per annum (or such lower rate as the Directors may determine) from the date of forfeiture or surrender until payment and the Directors may at their absolute discretion enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at that time of forfeiture or surrender or waive payment in whole or in part.
31. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) ~~for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such share and for all moneys and dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares.~~ Such lien shall be restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such monies are due and unpaid, and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by Law to pay in respect of the shares of the Shareholder or deceased Shareholder. The Directors may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall for some limited period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this Article.
32. The Company may sell in such manner as the Directors think fit any share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until the expiration of 14 days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable and giving notice of intention to sell in default shall have been given to the holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.
33. The net proceeds of such sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the debts or liabilities (including unpaid calls and accrued interest and expenses) and any residue shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the time of the sale or to his executors, trustees, administrators or assigns, as he may direct. For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise some person to transfer or effect the transfer of the shares sold to the purchaser.
34. A statutory declaration or an affidavit in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company and that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered or sold to satisfy a lien of the Company on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. Such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale, re-allotment or disposal thereof together (where the same be required) with the share certificate delivered to a purchaser (or where the purchaser is a Depositor, to the Depository) or allottee thereof shall (subject to the execution of a transfer if the same be required) constitute a good title to the share and the share shall be registered in the name of the person to whom the share is sold, re-allotted or disposed of or, where such person is a Depositor, the Company shall procure that his name be entered in the Depository Register in respect of the share so sold, re-allotted or disposed of. Such person shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

61. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn. Unless a poll is required a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against such resolution. If a poll is required, it shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) as the chairman of the meeting may direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The chairman of the meeting may (and, if required by the listing rules of any Designated Stock Exchange or if so directed by the meeting shall) appoint scrutineers and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.
62. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote.
63. A poll demanded on any question shall be taken either immediately or at such subsequent time (not being more than 30 days from the date of the meeting) and place as the chairman may direct. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.
- 63A. Where a poll is taken, votes shall be counted according to the votes attached to the shares of each Member present in person or by proxy and voting.

65. In the case of joint holders of a share the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members or (as the case may be) the Depository Register in respect of the share.
66.  - (b) upon any resolution which varies the rights attached to such shares; or
 - (c) upon any resolution for the winding-up of the Company.
68. No objection shall be raised as to the admissibility of any vote except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is or may be given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
69. On a poll, votes may be given either personally or by proxy and a person entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

- ~~(G)~~(F) A proxy shall be appointed by notice in writing signed by the Member and the notice shall state whether the appointment is for a particular meeting or a specified term.

- (i) signed by the appointor or his agent duly authorised in writing if the instrument is delivered personally or sent by post; and
- (ii) if the instrument is permitted by Law to be submitted and is submitted by electronic communication, such instrument shall be authorised by that individual through such method and in such manner as may be approved by the Directors; and
- (b) in the case of a Member which is a corporation, shall be:

- (B) The signature on, or authorization of, such instrument of proxy need not be witnessed. Where an instrument appointing a proxy is signed or authorised on behalf of the appointor (which shall, for purposes of this paragraph include a Depositor) by an attorney, the letter or power of attorney or a duly notarially certified copy thereof must (failing previous registration with the Company) be lodged with the instrument of proxy pursuant to the next following Article, failing which the instrument may be treated as invalid.

APPENDIX 1 – COMPARISON OF THE CONSTITUTION (INCORPORATING THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS) AND THE EXISTING CONSTITUTION

- (C) To the extent permitted by Law, the Directors may, in their absolute discretion:
- (a) approve the method and manner for an instrument appointing a proxy to be authorised; and
 - (b) designate the procedure for authenticating an instrument appointing a proxy, as contemplated in Articles 71(A)(a)(ii) and 71(A)(b)(ii) for application to such Members or class of Members as they may determine. Where the Directors do not so approve and designate in relation to a Member (whether of a class or otherwise), Article 71(A)(a)(i) and/or (as the case may be) Article 71(A)(b)(i) shall apply.
72. (A) An instrument appointing a proxy or a power of attorney or other authority, if any:
- (a) if sent personally or by post, must be left at such place or one of such places (if any) as may be specified for that purpose in or by way of note to or in any document accompanying the notice convening the meeting (or, if no place is so specified, at the Office); or
 - (b) if submitted by electronic communication, must be received through such means as may be specified for that purpose in or by way of note to or in any document accompanying the notice convening the Members Meeting, and in either case not less than 48-72 hours before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) for the taking of the poll at which it is to be used, and in default shall not be treated as valid. The instrument shall, unless the contrary is stated thereon, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates; Provided that an instrument of proxy relating to more than one meeting (including any adjournment thereof) having once been so delivered for the purposes of any meeting shall not be required again to be delivered for the purposes of any subsequent meeting to which it relates.
- (B) The Directors may, in their absolute discretion, and in relation to such Members or class of Members as they may determine, specify the means through which instruments appointing a proxy may be submitted by electronic communications, as contemplated in Article 72(A)(b). Where the Directors do not so specify in relation to a Member (whether of a class or otherwise), Article 72(A)(a) shall apply
73. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to include the right to demand or join in demanding a poll, to move any resolution or amendment thereto and to speak at the meeting. The deposit of an instrument appointing a proxy does not preclude the Member concerned from attending and voting in person at the Members Meeting concerned. In such event, the appointment of the proxy or proxies is deemed to be revoked by the Member concerned at the point when the Member attends the said Members Meeting.
74. A vote cast by proxy shall not be invalidated by the previous death or insanity of the principal or by the revocation of the appointment of the proxy or of the authority under which the appointment was made Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity or revocation shall have been received by the Company at the Office at least one hour before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for the taking of the poll at which the vote is cast.

Any corporation which is a Member of the Company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of Members of the Company. The person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of such corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member of the Company and such corporation shall for the purposes of these presents be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present thereat.

DIRECTORS

76. Subject as hereinafter provided the Directors, all of whom shall be natural persons, shall not be less than two nor more than 20 in number. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution from time to time vary the minimum and/or maximum number of Directors.
77. A Director shall not be required to hold any shares of the Company by way of qualification. A Director who is not a Member of the Company shall nevertheless be entitled to attend and speak at Members Meetings.
78. The ordinary remuneration of the Directors shall from time to time be determined by an Ordinary Resolution of the Company, shall not be increased except pursuant to an Ordinary Resolution passed at a Members Meeting where notice of the proposed increase shall have been given in the notice convening the Members Meeting and shall (unless such resolution otherwise provides) be divisible among the Directors as they may agree, or failing agreement, equally, except that any Director who shall hold office for part only of the period in respect of which such remuneration is payable shall be entitled only to rank in such division for a proportion of remuneration related to the period during which he has held office.
79. (A) Any Director who holds any executive office, or who serves on any committee of the Directors, or who otherwise performs services which in the opinion of the Directors are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Director, may be paid such extra remuneration by way of salary, commission or otherwise as the Directors may determine.

82. A Director may be party to or in any way interested in any contract or arrangement or transaction to which the Company is a party or in which the Company is in any way interested and he may hold and be remunerated in respect of any office or place of profit (other than the office of Auditor of the Company or any subsidiary thereof) under the Company or any other company in which the Company is in any way interested and he (or any firm of which he is a Member) may act in a professional capacity for the Company or any such other company and be remunerated therefor and in any such case as aforesaid (save as otherwise agreed) he may retain for his own absolute use and benefit all profits and advantages accruing to him thereunder or in consequence thereof.
83. (A) The Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to be the holder of any executive office (including, where considered appropriate, the office of Chairman or Deputy Chairman) on such terms and for such period as they may determine and, without prejudice to the terms of any contract entered into in any particular case, may at any time revoke any such appointment.
- (B) The appointment of any Director to the office of Chairman or Deputy Chairman or Managing or Joint Managing or Deputy or Assistant Managing Director shall automatically determine if he ceases to be a Director but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.
- (C) The appointment of any Director to any other executive office shall not automatically determine if he ceases from any cause to be a Director, unless the contract or resolution under which he holds office shall expressly state otherwise, in which event such determination shall be without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.
84. The Directors may entrust to and confer upon any Directors holding any executive office any of the powers exercisable by them as Directors upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they think fit, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers, and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

MANAGING DIRECTORS

85. The Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to be Managing Director or Managing Directors of the Company and may from time to time (subject to the provisions of any contract between him or them and the Company) remove or dismiss him or them from office and appoint another or others in his or their place or places. Where a Managing Director (or a person holding an equivalent position) ~~an appointment is appointed~~ for a fixed term, such term shall not exceed five years.

APPENDIX 1 – COMPARISON OF THE CONSTITUTION (INCORPORATING THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS) AND THE EXISTING CONSTITUTION

86. A Managing Director shall not while he continues to hold that office be subject to retirement by rotation and he shall not be taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of Directors but he shall, subject to the provisions of any contract between him and the Company, be subject to the same provisions as to resignation and removal as the other Directors of the Company and if he ceases to hold the office of Director from any cause he shall ipso facto and immediately cease to be a Managing Director.
87. The remuneration of a Managing Director shall from time to time be fixed by the Directors and may subject to these presents be by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or by any or all these modes but he shall not under any circumstances be remunerated by a commission on or a percentage of turnover.
88. A Managing Director (or a person holding an equivalent position) shall at all times be subject to the control of the Directors but subject thereto the Directors may from time to time entrust to and confer upon a Managing Director (or a person holding an equivalent position) for the time being such of the powers exercisable under these presents by the Directors as they may think fit and may confer such powers for such time and to be exercised on such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they think expedient and they may confer such powers either collaterally with or to the exclusion of and in substitution for all or any of the powers of the Directors in that behalf and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

89. The office of a Director shall be vacated in any of the following events, namely:
- (a) if he shall cease to be a Director by virtue of the Act or becomes prohibited or disqualified by the Statutes or any other Law from being acting as a Director under the Act; or
 - (b) if (not being a Director holding any executive office for a fixed term) he shall resign by writing under his hand left at the Office or if he shall in writing offer to resign and the Directors shall resolve to accept such offer; or
 - (c) if he shall become bankrupt or have a receiving order made against him or becomes a bankrupt or shall compound make any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally; or
 - (d) if he becomes of unsound mind or if an order shall be made by any court claiming jurisdiction in that behalf on the ground (however formulated) of mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a guardian or for the appointment of a receiver or other person (by whatever name called) to exercise powers with respect to his property or affairs; or
 - (e) if he is removed by the Company in Members Meeting pursuant to these presents; or
 - (f) if he ceases to hold office pursuant to Section 139 of the Act; or-
 - (g) if he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds, he shall immediately resign from the Board of Directors.
90. At each Annual Meeting one-third of the Directors for the time being (or, if their number is not a multiple of three, the number nearest to but not less than one-third) shall retire from office by rotation. Provided that no Director holding office as Managing or Joint Managing Director shall be subject to retirement by rotation or be taken into account in determining the number of Directors to retire.

91. The Directors to retire in every year shall be those subject to retirement by rotation who have been longest in office since their last re-election or appointment and so that as between persons who became or were last re-elected Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.
92. The Company at the meeting at which a Director retires under any provision of these presents may by Ordinary Resolution fill the office being vacated by electing thereto the retiring Director or some other person eligible for appointment. In default the retiring Director shall be deemed to have been re-elected except in any of the following cases:
- (a) where at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such office or a resolution for the re-election of such Director is put to the meeting and lost;
 - (b) where such Director has given notice in writing to the Company that he is unwilling to be re-elected or where such Director becomes prohibited or is disqualified by the Statutes or any other Law from holding office as a Director;
 - (c) where the default is due to the moving of a resolution in contravention of the next following Article; ~~or~~
 - (d) where such Director has attained any retiring age applicable to him as Director; or-
 - (e) where such Director is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds.

The retirement shall not have effect until the conclusion of the meeting except where a resolution is passed to elect some other person in the place of the retiring Director or a resolution for his re-election is put to the meeting and lost and accordingly a retiring Director who is re-elected or deemed to have been re-elected will continue in office without a break.

93. A resolution for the appointment of two or more persons as Directors by a single resolution shall not be moved at any Members Meeting unless a resolution that it shall be so moved has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it; and any resolution moved in contravention of this provision shall be void.
94. No person other than a Director retiring at the meeting shall, unless recommended by the Directors for election, be eligible for appointment as a Director at any Members Meeting unless not less than 11 nor more than 42 clear days (~~inclusive of the date on which the notice is given~~) before the date appointed for the meeting there shall have been lodged at the Office notice in writing signed by some Member (other than the person to be proposed) duly qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given of his intention to propose such person for election and also notice in writing signed by the person to be proposed ~~of his willingness to be elected~~ giving his consent to the nomination and signifying his candidature for the office, Provided that in the case of a person recommended by the Directors for election not less than nine clear days' notice shall be necessary and notice of each and every such person shall be served on the Members at least seven days prior to the meeting at which the election is to take place.

APPENDIX 1 – COMPARISON OF THE CONSTITUTION (INCORPORATING THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS) AND THE EXISTING CONSTITUTION

95. The Company may in accordance with and subject to the provisions of applicable Law by Ordinary Resolution of which special notice has been given remove any Director from office (notwithstanding any provision of these presents or of any agreement between the Company and such Director, but without prejudice to any claim he may have for damages for breach of any such agreement) and appoint another person in place of a Director so removed from office and any person so appointed shall be treated for the purpose of determining the time at which he or any other Director is to retire by rotation as if he had become a Director on the day on which the Director in whose place he is appointed was last elected a Director. In default of such appointment the vacancy arising upon the removal of a Director from office may be filled as a casual vacancy.
96. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution appoint any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director. Without prejudice thereto the Directors shall have power at any time so to do, but so that the total number of Directors shall not thereby exceed the maximum number (if any) fixed by or in accordance with these presents. Any person so appointed by the Directors shall hold office only until the next Annual Meeting and shall then be eligible for re-election, but shall not be taken into account in determining the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

97. (A) Any Director may at any time by writing under his hand and deposited at the Office, or delivered at a meeting of the Directors, appoint any person (other than another Director) approved by a majority of his co-Directors to be his alternate Director and may in like manner at any time terminate such appointment. Such appointment, unless previously approved by the Directors, shall have effect only upon and subject to being so approved. A person shall not act as Alternate Director to more than one Director at the same time.
- (B) The appointment of an alternate Director shall determine on the happening of any event which if he were a Director would cause him to vacate such office or if the Director concerned (below called "his principal") ceases to be a Director.
- (C) An Alternate Director shall (except when absent from Mauritius or Singapore) be entitled to receive notices of meetings of the Directors and shall be entitled to attend and vote as a Director at any such meeting at which his principal is not personally present and generally at such meeting to perform all functions of his principal as a Director and for the purposes of the proceedings at such meeting the provisions of these presents shall apply as if he (instead of his principal) were a Director. As far as reasonably practicable, endeavour shall also be made for notices of meetings of the Directors to be given to an Alternate Director who is absent from Mauritius or Singapore, Provided that the accidental omission to give notice to or the non-receipt by any such Alternate Director shall not invalidate any proceedings at any meetings of the Directors. If his principal is for the time being absent from Mauritius or Singapore or temporarily unable to act through ill health or disability, his signature to any resolution in writing of the Directors shall be as effective as the signature of his principal. To such extent as the Directors may from time to time determine in relation to any committees of the Directors, the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall also apply mutatis mutandis to any meeting of any such committee of which his principal is a Member. An Alternate Director shall not (save as aforesaid) have power to act as a Director nor shall he be deemed to be a Director for the purposes of these presents.

APPENDIX 1 – COMPARISON OF THE CONSTITUTION (INCORPORATING THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS) AND THE EXISTING CONSTITUTION

- (D) An Alternate Director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements or transactions and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent mutatis mutandis as if he were a Director but he shall not be entitled to receive from the Company in respect of his appointment as Alternate Director any remuneration except only such part (if any) of the remuneration otherwise payable to his principal as such principal may by notice in writing to the Company from time to time direct.

MEETINGS AND PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

98. (A) Subject to the provisions of these presents the Directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. At any time any Director may, and the Secretary on the requisition of a Director shall, summon a meeting of the Directors. It shall be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to all Directors for the time. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting and any such waiver may be retroactive.
- (B) Directors may participate in a meeting of the Directors by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, without a Director being in the physical presence of another Director or Directors, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this provision shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.
99. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed from time to time by the Directors and unless so fixed at any other number shall be six. A meeting of the Directors at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all powers and discretions for the time being exercisable by the Directors.
100. Questions arising at any meeting of the Directors shall be determined by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes (except where only two Directors are present and form the quorum or when only two Directors are competent to vote on the question in issue) the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
101. A Director shall not vote in respect of any contract or arrangement or any other proposal whatsoever in which he has any personal material interest, directly or indirectly. A Director shall not be counted in the quorum at a meeting in relation to any resolution on which he is debarred from voting.
- 101A. To the full extent required by the Law, a Director shall, forthwith after becoming aware of the fact that he is interested in a transaction or proposed transaction with the Company, cause to be entered in the interests register of the Company where it has one, and disclose to the Board, the nature and monetary value of that interest or where the monetary value of the Director's interest cannot be quantified, the nature and extent of that interest Provided that a general notice entered in the interests register or disclosed to the Board to the effect that a Director is a shareholder, director, officer or trustee of another named Company or other person and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction which may, after the date of the entry or disclosure, be entered into with that Company or person, shall be a sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to that transaction.
102. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancies, but if and so long as the number of Directors is reduced below the minimum number fixed by or in accordance with these presents the continuing Directors or Director may, except in an emergency, act for the purpose of filling up such vacancies or of summoning Members Meetings, but not for any other purpose. If there be no Directors or Director able or willing to act, then any two Members may summon a Members Meeting for the purpose of appointing Directors.

103. (A) The Directors may elect from their number a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman (or two or more Deputy Chairmen) and determine the period for which each is to hold office. If no Chairman or Deputy Chairman shall have been appointed or if at any meeting of the Directors no Chairman or Deputy Chairman shall be present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- (B) If at any time there is more than one Deputy Chairman the right in the absence of the Chairman to preside at a meeting of the Directors or of the Company shall be determined as between the Deputy Chairmen present (if more than one) by seniority in length of appointment or otherwise as resolved by the Directors.
104. A resolution in writing signed by such number of Directors as to constitute a quorum shall be as effective as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Directors and may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one or more Directors. If the Depository returns any such dividend or moneys to the Company, the relevant Depositor shall not have any right or claim in respect of such dividend or moneys against the Company if a period of six years have elapsed from the date of the declaration of such dividend or the date on which such other moneys are first payable.

The Directors may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to any such capitalisation, with full power to the Directors to make such provisions as they think fit for any fractional entitlements which would arise on the basis aforesaid (including provisions whereby fractional entitlements are disregarded or the benefit thereof accrues to the Company rather than to the Members concerned).
