

Company Announcement: Alert on fake Golden Agri-Resources website

21 January 2018

We would like to alert the public about a fake website which claims to be Golden Agri-Resources (GAR), providing inaccurate information about the company and inviting users to apply for jobs through the site.

This comes on the back of fake recruitment notices claiming to be from GAR, being handed out to the public.

We advise the public and company partners to be careful of information that is not originating from its official website or social media accounts.

The Company is currently working with the Indonesian National Police to investigate and follow up on this matter.

If you find anything suspicious and need help to ensure the validity of information, please contact us at +65 9618 3726 during working hours.
